

The audio tour ends here. If you wish, you can purchase at the entrance desk the book that will allow you to deepen your visit: Museo de Covadonga. Catalog of its Collections. The publication has been edited by the María Cristina Masaveu Peterson Foundation and donated to the Museum to contribute to the maintenance of its collections with the proceeds from its sale.

With over 430 pages and 300 illustrations, this volume, published in both Spanish and English, offers a valuable resource for consulting and interpreting the heritage and historical events that took place at the Sanctuary of Covadonga. It catalogs 133 pieces of sculpture, painting, drawing, prints, goldsmithing, metals, numismatics, horology, furniture, and textiles. There is also an appendix dedicated to the 17 portraits from the Chronological Series of the Kings of Spain, deposited by the Museo Nacional del Prado in the Museo de Covadonga.
